

Follow-Up to RBI Introduction

Questions

1. What have been some positive experiences doing the RBI
 - a. ...in terms of the goals produced?
 - b. ...in terms of the depth of information acquired?
 - c. ...in terms of establishing a relationship with the family?
2. What have been some challenges in doing the RBI?
 - a. ...in terms of the goals produced?
 - b. ...in terms of the information acquired?
 - c. ...in terms of working with the family?
3. Logistics
 - a. How have you fit this into the IFSP development process?
 - b. What hand-off challenges have you faced?
 - c. What documentation have you done?

Top Ten Signs the RBI Is Being Implemented Incorrectly or Correctly

Incorrect implementation	Correct implementation
10. Family waits while interviewer writes	10. The interview flows like a conversation
9. Interviewer moves on to new topics with, "OK."	9. Interviewer frequently summarizes what the parent said
8. Interviewer asks one or two questions to get at child functioning in a routine	8. Interviewer asks lots of questions (e.g., 6-10) to get at child functioning in a routine
7. Interviewer sticks with the agenda, regardless of how long it's taking	7. Interviewer skips over some routines to be finished within 2 hours
6. Interviewer has hard time getting back on track after interruptions	6. Interviewer quickly gets back on track after interruptions
5. Interviewer is impassive as family talks about struggles, challenges	5. Interviewer displays emotion, affect change, as family talks about struggles, challenges
4. Interviewer is formal, stiff with the family	4. Interviewer is informal, at ease with the family
3. No family-level goal are on plans	3. At least one family-level is on each plan
2. Fewer than 6 goals are on the plan	2. Six or more goals are on the plan
And the Number 1 sign the RBI is being implemented incorrectly... Interviews last less than an hour	And the Number 1 sign the RBI is being implemented correctly... Interviews last more than an hour